

I subscribe to XM radio for the purpose that I don't have to listen to radio talk, commercials, traffic, weather and everything else associated with local stations. If I need to, local stations are there for me. The total digital broadcast is second to none. I don't have to worry about hearing the same songs over and over again, the variety that XM delivers is also top notch. I drive alot during the day and XM is my choice.